Why choose pharmacy?

OPEN THE DOOR TO A RANGE OF CAREER OPTIONS

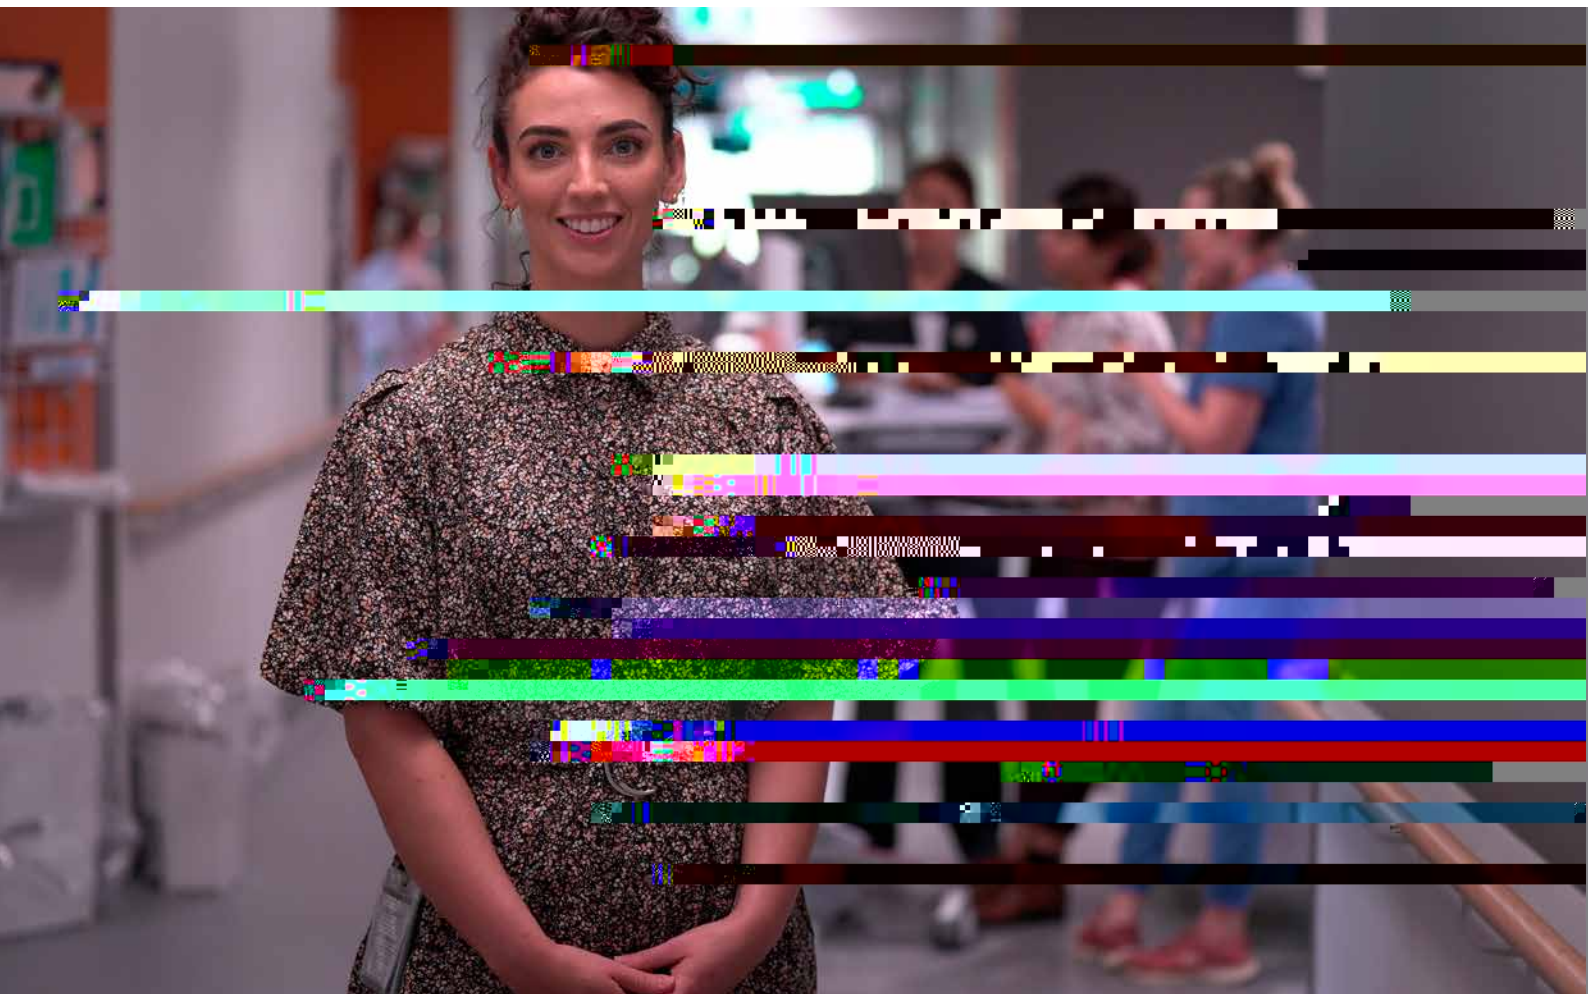

Pharmacy can lead to a range of careers, including working in retail community pharmacy stores, hospitals, Defence Force, research and drug development, aged care facilities, GP and health clinics, home visits, health service management and much more. As well as dispensing medications, retail pharmacists often provide a range of services, such as health and medication advice, vaccinations, health check-ups and reviews of medications.

Since I've done pharmacy, no one has been able to tell me that there is no career in pharmacy and it's not rewarding or really going to make a difference to someone's health.
