ARTS MAJORS

As part of the Bachelor of Arts, you can choose from 12 majors.

Anthropology

Study history, languages, politics, economics and social systems. Understand cultural and ethnic difference and analyse how people's beliefs fit into a wider social, political and economic context.

Archaeology

Develop skills in archaeological investigation and research as a basis for employment in the field in Australia. Expand your knowledge with specialised offerings in evolutionary, forensic, Asian, Australian, and European archaeology.

Criminology

Learn why people are motivated to commit crime, and explore strategies to prevent law-breaking and rehabilitate offenders. This course equips you with skills to help make a difference in your community.

English

Investigate and explore the riches of literature across the ages. You will develop your understanding of the English language and gain a high level of communication and reasoning skills while growing your passion for reading and writing.

History

Engage with the past to develop skills in critical thinking, research, and communication. Assess evidence physically and online, and refine your ability to communicate ideas in a range of formats including digital projects.

Human Geography

Explore the interrelationship between people and their natural and built environments. Develop specialist skills including urban planning and design, regional sustainability, and social and environmental impact assessment.

Human Services

Study social policy, community planning and development, education and capacity building, organisational practice, and social responsibility. Gain practical skills and experience through field trips and project work.

Indigenous Studies

Expand your understanding of the complex interface between Indigenous and Western knowledge, perspectives, and practices in Australia today. Some subjects include field trips, and one includes an optional international trip to an Indigenous community.

Politics and International Relations

Explore issues such as human rights, ethnic relations, war and conflict, the ongoing legacies of historical events, and politics in the developing world. Learn the skills you need for a career in defence, diplomacy, ethnic affairs, human rights and development, intelligence, and international trade.

Psychology Studies

Explore the history of psychology, the nervous system, memory, intelligence, emotion, personality, and psychological disorders. This major is not accredited. If you want to become a Registered Psychologist, find out more about the Bachelor of Psychological Science. This major is not available at Cairns campus.

Sociology

Develop the analytical tools to learn how society is organised and how we experience life with each other. Study social trends, and understand why and how societies and institutions have developed through history.

BUSINESS MAJORS

As part of the Bachelor of Business, you can choose from three majors.
